The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicants' prior art figure 2.

Applicants' prior art figure 2 discloses a semiconductor device package comprising a semiconductor device affixed to an upper surface of a substrate, a mold cap (204), and a heat spreader (202) affixed to at least a portion of the upper surface of the mold cap. It would have been obvious that Applicants' prior art discloses the claimed device.

Claims 1-9 are alternatively rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Huang et al.

Huang discloses a semiconductor device package comprising a semiconductor device affixed to an upper surface of a substrate, a mold cap (34), and a heat spreader (33) affixed to at least a portion of the upper surface of the mold cap. It would have been obvious that Huang discloses the claimed device.
